Here I stand, I can do no other.
Here I stand, I am not condemned.
My sins have been covered
By his perfect righteousness.
Here I stand, this is how I plead:

Chorus:

*Sola gratia, sola fide,
Solo Christo, sola Scriptura.
Sola gratia, sola fide,
Solo Christo for it is by grace,
Through faith I stand!

I do not set aside the grace of God.
Righteousness does not come through the Law.
It comes from believing
In the finished work of Christ.
Here I stand, this is how I plead:*

When I see the sinful ways inside my heart,
All I do, all I fail to do:
Though my sins are great,
Your grace is greater still!
Here I stand, this is how I plead:*

(Latin: Sola gratia means by "grace alone," sola fide means through "faith alone," solo Christo means by "Christ alone," sola Scriptura means according to the "Scriptures alone.")
